The Ulen Experience

Ulen Country Club is the perfect combination of quality, tradition and value. The first thing you will notice is the quality of the golf course: Bill Diddel, an Indiana golf legend, designed and built our 18 hole course; pristine bent grass fairways and quick, true greens framed by beautiful, mature trees. As you enter the clubhouse, you will be struck by the welcoming appearance of our dining facilities. Built in 1924, the clubhouse has a classic yet modern feel. Yet what really distinguishes Ulen Country Club is our quality staff which strives for the very best experiences for all of our members and their guests. When we speak of tradition at Ulen Country Club, we are referring to social fellowship and camaraderie that dates back 93 years. Best of all, this quality, tradition and service is delivered to our members at an outstanding value. For a country club experience, we believe there simply is no better value in all of Indiana.
